FEATURES

The Sabai Massage Table is specially designed for Thai and Ashiatsu massage, giving therapists the stability and durability needed for barefoot massage techniques. With its smooth hi-lo design and collapsible sides, this professional massage table offers exceptional adaptability to a wide range of client needs and treatment styles.

Built with strength and performance in mind, this massage table creates a secure foundation for deep tissue bodywork. Practitioners can also choose the optional sturdy hand bar rig, which further elevates massage by enhancing balance, control, and precision during treatments. This unique feature allows therapists to expand the range of techniques they offer while ensuring client comfort and safety.
